Summary for Linux Support
RedHat has announced that they will only provide support (security and bug fixes) for 1 year from date of an OS release. This is not long enough support for many of our users (as well as other HEP sites). The presentation will outline our support concerns and recommendations.